

DMH EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT – DENICIA TAYLOR

Continuing our stories that spotlight LACDMH employees who shine, this week we're featuring...

DENICIA TAYLOR
Staff Assistant II/Augustus F. Hawkins FMHC

Denicia has worked for the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health (LACDMH) for 11 years. She is a Staff Assistant II at Augustus F. Hawkins (AFH) FMHC.

In her job, she is a personnel liaison for all the programs within Augustus F. Hawkins. She coordinates various staff requests for services, supplies and equipment with MLK/MACC administration staff and LACDMH central administration staff. She also assists the Health Program Analyst with special projects or requests, and prepares clinic deposits and monitors bus tokens and petty cash.

What do you like about your job? "I like taking care of people and knowing that I made a difference in helping to maintain a smooth flowing operation."

Who/what inspires you? "My inspiration is my extended family here at AFH. We are a wonderful mixture of people and I enjoy working with everyone."

What quote inspires you? "Every great dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world." – Harriet Tubman

What do you enjoy doing in your spare time? "I enjoy spending time with my kids and grandchildren."

Do you have any words of wisdom for other LACDMH employees? "Be kind to people no matter who they are. You never know when you might cross paths again."
